NONE, Rural Taber, M.D. of, Alberta

Eighty-eight acres of opportunity stretch out just west of Taber. Shaped like a triangle, this property fans out from its southeast corner homestead toward the west and north, where you'll find fields serviced by wheel lines and a pivot. With 30 acres of valuable water rights, you've got what you need to grow crops, sustain animals, or simply hold onto as a rare investment. At the heart of it all is a classic 2434 sqft bungalow, its stucco exterior accented by protective pecka roll shutters on every window. Inside, the entrance doubles as a laundry space and sun room, from there a convenient 2 pc washroom is tucked to the side before heading into the open expansive kitchen and dining area that can easily host a harvest dinner or a casual weeknight meal. French doors lead into a cozy living room anchored by a wood-burning fireplace. Down the hall, a library with patio doors to a second sun room, this time south facing. Completing the main floor are 2 more bedrooms, a 4pc bathroom and the large primary suite with 3pc en-suite. The basement is a blank canvas for future expansion and has plumbing for a 4th washroom already. The yard is beautifully landscaped and equipped with underground sprinklers to keep everything lush. Outbuildings include a steel-framed 40'x60' shop, sheds, corrals, and shelters for animals. There's even a 22'x30' heated building with water once used as a photography darkroom—a charming bonus space ready for a studio, hobby workshop, or office. A dugout adds yet another layer of utility and security for the land. Whether your vision is to farm, ranch, or simply enjoy unmatched elbow room, this property delivers.
